H. C. MINTER,
Keytesville, Mo.

The opening play of the Choate Dramatic company at the opera house next Monday night will be "Caprice," a highly interesting and entertaining comedy. Don't fail to witness it.

Our good farmer friend, G. W. Hocker, of northeast of town, presented us last Thursday with a cluster of nice red June apples, they being the second crop produced by the same tree this year. They were about half the usual size and well formed.

"Billie" Grinstead and Roy Holcomb were arrested by Marshal Embree last Saturday evening for causing a disturbance on the street by quarreling and fighting. They appeared before Mayor Gilliam Monday, pleaded guilty and were fined a dollar and trimmings, each.

Mendon's new M. E. Church South, will soon be ready for occupancy.

Mendon's public school opened last week with an enrollment of 81 pupils, which the Citizen wisely argues is a greater number than a school-house of only two departments can conveniently accommodate, and urges the school board to get about the erection of an addition to the building.

Henry Brinker, a Keytesville negro charged with rape on a 14-year-old negro girl at Brookfield, escaped from jail, but was re-captured, and was tried last week on a charge of breaking jail, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to six months imprisonment in the Linn Co. bastille. He will be tried on the more serious charge of rape after his jail sentence expires.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Keeley went down to Moberly last Saturday night on a visit to Mr. Keeley's sister, Mrs. J. A. Whiteford.

The press speaks in complimentary terms of the Choate Dramatic company. At the opera house in Keytesville next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

Our enterprising (?) neighbor, the Brunswick Republican, is running an advertisement to the effect that "spring-time, with all its joys and sunshine, is coming." Yes, it's coming, but it's a long way off, and we suggest to our neighbor, that if he is depending on the results of advertisements like the above for his winter's wood or for material to half-sole his editorial trousers, he had better get off the earth or emigrate to a more congenial clime.

W. H. LEWIS,

Office in Court-House,
KEYTESVILLE, - MISSOURI.

Andrew Wright, a clever farmer of Chariton township, and his two lovely daughters were in Keytesville last Saturday.

J. I. Crossland, a prominent and successful farmer of near Indian Grove, went down to St. Louis Monday night to take his son, Sammie, to consult a specialist, Sammie having had serious throat trouble for some time.

H. B. Richardson, Chariton county's clever circuit clerk, returned from St. Louis Tuesday morning, whither he had been to assist his ward, Levi Fawke, to matriculate in the St. Louis College of Pharmacy, in which he was successful, also in securing for "Levi" a pleasant boarding house and other comfortable surroundings.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Collet, of Roby, Texas county, arrived in Keytesville last Saturday on a visit to their son, J. A. Collet. They will also spend several days with their son, Ben Collet, of the Bynumville neighborhood, before returning home. Mr. Collet says that Texas county, as well as all of the rest of the grand old state of Missouri, will have the largest corn crop this year ever known in her history.

One of our enterprising firms sold three handsome bills of goods last Tuesday to parties living near Indian Grove, Dalton and Glasgow. Two of the parties had never done any trading in Keytesville before, and the third had not patronized a Keytesville merchant for ten years or more. A liberal use of printers' ink will bring 'em every time, and Keytesville merchants who advertise in the COURIER are getting the trade, and we are glad of it.
